Dated Mysore 15th January 1898.

To

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Municipal Board of Nanjangud recommend the native Pundit by name Venkatasubba Pundit on the representation of the townspeople for a grant a monthly allowance of Rs 6 from the Municipal Funds to meet the cost of the medicines. The Pundit is said to be popular and well versed in the Ayur-vedic treatment. The number of Patients treated by him, as shown in the Register kept by him, ranges from 300 to 350 a month, Nanjangud being a place of pilgrimage and frequently resorted to by the orthodox community who generally prefer the native treatement, both the Amildar and the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Taluk strongly support the proposal of the Municipal Board. I therefore request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the same. The records are herewith submitted for perusal.

In reply, I beg to state that I have inspected the Pandit's place of business twice and found the number of patients attending every day is about 40. On enquiry I was informed by the Amildar and other respectable persons of the place that the Pandit is very popular and useful to the people in the town and its neighbouring villages. Kanjangad being the place of pilgrimage and often visited by orthodox people, a good number of them resort to his treatment during the time of festivity. He has in his Dispensary a pretty good stock of native medecines. As regards his qualifications I found him that he has some knowledge of indigenous drugs and knows the native method of treatment.

The Pandit is very popular and conscientious man and he deserves encouragement.

resorted to this pandit for treatment.

2. It does not matter what qualified medical help we place at the service of our people they will still resort to quacks of all descriptions for treatment. This does not now i.e, after so many years' experience, strike me as anything out of the way as many an otherwise high, intelligent and well educated man in this portion resorts to these quacks, qualified and otherwise, for treatment.

3. I was given to understand that at the time of fairs and festivals when there is a large concourse of people at Nanjangud the services of this pandit are greatly in requisition and from what I was able to gather on the spot, I was assured that should a less popular medical officer be placed in charge of the Nanjangud Dispensary at any time, this pandit will drive a roaring trade in his profession.

4. When there is already a good sum expended on such quacks and on young men that are apprenticed to the profession at the Indigenous Hospital, I do not think there is any thing gained by refusing the aid that this pandit seeks at the hands of the Local Fund Board and which help I am sure the Board does not in its wisdom grudge.

In returning the enclosures, I have the honor to report that on two occasions, viz, once when I went to Nanjangud to accompany H.H The Maharani Regent to Mysore, and the other day when I was returning from Chama Rajnagar I made enquiries in regard to the qualifications of the pandit (Venkat Subba pandit). He appeared to me as well acquainted with the native system of medicine as these pandits generally are and I found that in spite of the great popularity of the Hospital Assistant Surgeon many people resorted
